Sometimes businesses require short term use of furniture, making it ideal to use our hire service. This could be to bridge the gap while an expansion project is being completed, or when disaster recovery is necessary and premises have been damaged by flood or fire. Hiring furniture provides a convenient short term solution in these situations.

STORAGE & FILING AUDITS

A common issue within office environments is that people often think that they don't have enough storage. This process helps when re-planning and ensures that space is used efficiently.
